Five Little Sailboats

By Denise Fromm

Five little sailboats went out on the sea.
The first one said, "It looks like rain to me!"
The second one said, "I can feel the waves are fast."
The third one said, "The wind's shaking my mast."
The fourth one said, "Let's head back into the bay."
The fifth one said, "Follow me!" as he swayed.
So the five little sailboats quick as can be,
Sailed back to the shore and to safety.
